

How do you remember your mother? If you can't find your stuff, MUM KNOWS. If you can't do your hair, MUM CAN. If you haven't eaten yet, MUM COOKS. Often people say... a mother does the work of twenty – for free. A mother's love is so unconditional and no law on earth can break it. Taking care of us for a very long time is a tough job, surely every mother deserves a treat. This coming May 14 is another chance for you to give your mum a special sun-date!

Why not do something you rarely do for her? It is time to take them outside for a breathe of fresh air. Invite them on a picnic lunch, or take them to places they have never been, as some mothers are adventurous by nature. Make them happy by the little touching ideas such as writing a love letter or a fun cute DIY greeting card. On the other hand, if your mum is a sentimental person, a bouquet of flowers will show her how much you miss her and care for her. And who says you can't yell at your mom? Yell the three words, "I LOVE YOU", and she will hug you tight like she usually does.
